

Grand Rapids, MI

The heart of what Forbes Magazine calls “One of the 10 Best Downtowns in the U.S.A.”

Join us for the 56th Annual Meeting of the Aquatic Plant Management Society at the Amway Grand Plaza in Grand Rapids July 17-20, 2016.

Walk out the doors of the Amway Grand and it won't take you more than a minute or two to find something to see, eat, drink or do. The Amway Grand Hotel, considered the finest hotel in West Michigan, sits snugged in downtown Grand Rapids – surrounded by art museums, stunning architecture, a lively music, sports and theater scene and arguably some of the best restaurants and the very best breweries in the entire country. Not to mention the incredible scene surrounding you before you even walk outside.

The APMS Meeting Planning Committee is working on exciting and entertaining events for relaxing, visiting, and chatting with friends and colleagues. The Program Committee pledges a diverse and educational program of oral and poster presentations on aquatic plant research and management. Bring your students!

Our 56th Annual Meeting takes place July 17-20, 2016. If you're like me, you will want to put it on your calendar right now. Below is the link to reservations at the Amway Grand:
